

London Macroeconomics Workshop

Tuesday 6 May 2014

NIESR, 2 Dean Trench Street, London SW1P 3HE

NIESR is delighted to be hosting the next London Macroeconomics Workshop, aimed at fostering interaction and collaboration between macro researchers in the greater London area. It is jointly organised by the Bank of England, Cambridge University, London Business School, London School of Economics, the National Institute of Economic and Social Research and University College London, which form the newly established ESRC Center for Macroeconomics. The emphasis is on presenting new research, in particular, work in progress.

The proceedings will be as follows:

13:00-13:30	Registration and Coffee
13:30-14:10	“Speculative Runs on Interest Rate Pegs” , Marco Bassetto (UCL) Co-author: Christopher Phelan (Minnesota)
14:10-14:50	“Interest Rate Pegs under Imperfect Credibility” , Alex Haberis, Richard Harrison and Matt Waldron (Bank of England)
14:50-15:30	“Shake me the money” , Riccardo Trezzi (Cambridge) Co-author: Francesco Porcelli (Exeter)
15:30-16:00	Coffee Break
16:00-16:40	“Search-Based Endogenous Illiquidity and the Macroeconomy” , Wei Cui (UCL)
16:40-17:20	“Unbalanced Growth, Secular Stagnation and the Relative Price of Investment Goods” , Gregory Thwaites (Bank of England and LSE)
17:20-18:00	Policy Discussion: “Currency Unions and Sovereign Debt: the case for Scottish independence” , Angus Armstrong and Monique Ebell (NIESR)
18:00	Close

At the close of the conference we will be heading to the Barley Mow on Horseferry Road for a drink, and all are welcome to join.
